Ballardvale Building Is Closed

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

The Ballardvale Community center building and the branch library located there are closed and the building may never be reopened.

Structural problems in the foundation area found by the building inspectors, led to the decision to close the library and building.

Some temporary repairs will be made to the crumbling foundation area to relieve the possibility of portions of the structure collapsing.

But, the overall cost to put the structure back in shape as a public building, and particularly for library use, has resulted in the decision by Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark to recommend to the selectmen its discontinuance and sale of the property.

Clark based his decision on the considered estimated cost of $150,000 to properly repair the building. The costs include reconstruction of the foundation, installing wiring and other utilities to meet code, install insulation and other energy conservation measures, and in accordance with federal regulations, make the building accessible to the handicapped.

The manager noted that already, the town is looking at a $150,000 cost to replace Recreation Park lodge, a major school building program, reuse of East Junior High building for municipal purposes, a tax cap and reduced municipal spending.

Under such conditions, coupled with a $7,000 savings per year based on current maintenance costs for the building, discontinuing the Vale Community center as a public building seems the most logical alternative.

With the exception of the branch library, the Vale building has seen little other use. Vandalism has been a problem following public functions at the building in recent years.

It is among the buildings studied last summer by the department of community services and considered for disposal as a public facility.

While closing of the branch library will present some inconvenience to some residents of the area, it is that use of the building which presents the major structural problem.

The floor in the particular area is currently rated at 30 pounds per square foot load, while building code requires 150 pounds per square foot for library use.

This means the area is being five times overstressed for design and use of the area.

The building inspectors checked the building when deterioration of the foundation was noticed a short time ago.

In their report to Town Manager Clark they noted there was serious deterioration in the granite section of the foundation and serious cracking in the supporting beams.

The building was thus ordered closed, until some temporary measures could be taken to properly support the building.

Clark said he is in the process of negotiating with a carpenter to put up a studded wall to support the building and keep it from collapsing.

The foundation area is in two sections, one of granite construction, the other a so-called rubble wall made of wood. The weakening of the wooden area has caused the granite section to shift, to the point where daylight can be seen through the stones.

Two Election Contests

Andover's annual town election will have two contests, and possibly two referendum items for voter decision on March 24.

Contests will be for the two positions open on the board of selectmen and the two seats on the school committee. Three men are seeking the two-year terms available in each contest.

With the deadline for filing nomination papers passing as of 5 p.m. Tuesday, the contest for selectmen was composed of Chairman Edward M. Harris who is seeking re-election to another three-year term, Rev. Randolph Lehman-Becker, minister of the Unitarian-Universalist Church and Gerald Silverman, former school administrator here, and now principal of Georgetown High school.

In the race for school committee, are Donald M. Robb who seeks election to a full term on that committee, having been appointed to fill an unexpired term last summer, Richard E. Neal and Joseph A. Baglio. Committeeman Alan W. Doerr is not seeking re-election. All three men were candidates for appointment to the board at a joint meeting of selectmen and school committee members last summer. Robb was selected to fill the term of Casimir Kolaski who resigned due to transfer in employment.

In the referendum area, voters will be asked to remove civil service status for employees in the public works department. Most DPW positions have been removed by similar action in recent years, with the remainder of the department subject to the March 24 decision.

None of the present employees would be effected by the decision, only new workers.

Another question may appear, that to remove civil service coverage for school custodians. Approved at the October town meeting, the matter is now awaiting approval of the legislature before it can be placed on the March 24 ballot.

Only other items on the ballot will be election of a moderator and Andover Housing Authority member. James D. Doherty is unopposed in his bid for re-election as moderator as is Atty. Richard Savrann in his desire to serve another five-year term on the AHA.

Regards To The Chief

Presidential Candidate Ronald Reagan was a surprise visitor to the retirement party for Police Chief David L. Nicoll last Saturday night at the Sheraton Rolling Green. On the campaign trail in New Hampshire, Reagan was staying at the Rolling Green last Saturday and completed his day by stopping to extend best wishes to Nicoll. Other photos, pages 28 and 29.

The Kids Remember Their Driver

By Susan A. Deacon

When school bus driver William Smeltzer of 19 Woburn St. retired last December after nine years of service to the town, the kids on his route didn't want to let him go without a proper good-bye.

So, last Wednesday, students at South School honored Smeltzer with a party featuring a plaque modelled after a bus, carnations, and a homemade cake.

"This is the nicest bunch of kids I ever found," Smeltzer said after the party. "I really miss these kids."

Smeltzer drove students to the South School, East Junior High and the high school for the past two years. Other years, his route included the Bancroft and West Elementary schools. "My route usually changed each year," he explained, "and with the route changes, I drove some of the same kids off and on for three different years."

Smeltzer became a favorite with many of his young passengers by bringing them small treats "when they were good," he said. "I used to give them candy sometimes. In fact, there was one mother who got mad and told me not to give her little boy candy anymore, so I stopped giving it on his route."

The kids who rode on Smeltzer's bus were also treated to Christmas gifts every year — "just somelittle thing like a pen or a coloring book."

During the summer months, Smeltzer often enjoyed taking small groups of students to his camp in the White Mountains. "I used to take four or five kids of all ages, then the next time I'd take four or five other kids. They'd be up there with my kids and we'd all have a great time, touring the scenic areas, swimming and hiking. One weekend we had 13 kids up there," he recalled, "and they went through seven pounds of peanut butter."

Smeltzer, who was born in Shawsheen Village and has lived "for all but 13 years in Andover", worked as a carpenter before he bought his school bus in 1970.

"I'd never done anything like this before," he said. "But I heard the school was looking for someone to drive, so I bought a bus and contracted it to the schools. It was a quick as that."

The only bad times Smeltzer can remember are those when he had to drive on dangerously slippery roads, and when "a couple of kids got sick on the bus." But, he added, "there were only two of them in nine years."

Among the retired driver's passengers have been four of his own granddaughters. "Last year, I picked up two of them who live on River Street, and two who live on Woburn Street."

Why did Smeltzer decide to retire this year? "Well, I'm not getting any younger," he explained, "and my bus isn't either. I would have had to buy a new bus to continue, and I just didn't want to make that kind of investment at this point."

Smeltzer is now working at Compugraphic in Wilmington.

"Mr. Smeltzer symbolizes the great service performed by Andover bus drivers," said John Woodward, South School principal. "He got the kids safely and promptly to school, while being very courteous and firm. Mr. Smeltzer is very reliable and," he added, "very modest."

There is "no secret" to how he got along so well with all the students he worked with, Smeltzer insisted. "They were just nice kids, for the most part."

Sixth-grader Kelly Conley proved the feeling was mutual when she wrote the following poem and presented it to Smeltzer at his good-bye party:

*"Mr. Smeltzer is so nice,
He does his job through snow and ice.
Don't worry if it's thick or thin,
He'll get the kids home safe again."*

Voter Registration Deadline

Tuesday, March 4, will be the final day for registration of new voters for the annual town election and participation in town meeting.

Special registration sessions have been set by the board of registrars to assist those wishing to enroll.

Registrars will be at the YMCA building on Haverhill Street and at the Office of Colonial Apartments on Tuesday, Feb. 26, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. On Saturday, March 1, a special session will run from 12 noon to 8 p.m. in town hall and on Tuesday, March 4, the final day, registration will take place throughout the day and until 10 p.m. in town hall.

Persons may register any day at the town clerk's office during regular working hours.

Those registering should bring proof of residence, such as a tax bill or utility bill.

June 4 Is THE Day For Seniors

The school committee Tuesday night approved Wednesday, June 4, as graduation day for Andover High seniors.

While June 24 is listed on the calendar as the last day of regular school, that includes four snow days still unused. If none are needed, school could get out on June 19 or 20, depending on how the school committee decides to handle the day school was closed for Pope John Paul II's visit to Boston.

Doherty Concerns Considered

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann said Tuesday night she had met informally with Doherty School parents and discussed the proposals they presented to the school committee Feb. 5 (They asked, among other things, for movement of Doherty's developmental primary program, in tact, to Bancroft in the fall; an administrator "sympathetic" to that concept; an in-service program to educate other teachers and administrators to the Doherty support systems and "immediate application" of those, where appropriate; and an all-schools parent group to work with the administration on redistricting.

Viehmann didn't feel the school committee was ready to make a formal reply this week, as the parents had requested, but said they welcomed the parental input and would take their concerns into consideration.

She said all the things the parents had proposed were open to discussion and she felt that some of their concerns would be allayed as the committee proceeds toward redistricting.

Basic Skills Standards To Be Topic

Basic skill standards for Andover pupils, recommended by a local committee to meet a new State policy, will be the subject of a public hearing next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Andover High's Large Group Room.

Reading Program Advisor Theresa Murphy will present recommendations for Grades 3, 6 and 8 in reading and writing, and Math Department Head James Murphy, in math.

Copies of the proposed guidelines may be seen at Memorial Hall Library and in each principal's office.

League To Discuss Civil Service

The Civil Service system in Massachusetts, its need for reform as well as its merit, will be discussed at open meetings of the League of Women Voters on Tuesday, Feb. 26. The 9:15 a.m. meeting is at the home of Virginia Maxfield, 111 Reservation Road, Baby sitting can be arranged by calling Rosemary McClune, 69 Reservation Road beforehand. Esther Parson, 104 Hidden Road will hostess the 7:45 p.m. meeting. Guests and League members are encouraged to attend.

Public personnel systems were initiated nearly a century ago to replace a patronage system with a merit system for public employees. Many Andover town employees are covered by civil service but recent town meetings have voted to remove further appointments in some positions. The referendum vote next month may remove more positions. Town Manager Jared Clark will be joining those discussing the current system and proposals for reform.

The Luge

The newly built Mt. Van Hoevenberg baun at Lake Placid is the only official luge run in the Western Hemisphere. A luge has no mechanical brakes or steering. It runs a serpentine course at speeds surpassing 70 mph, with merely a steering strap to hold the athlete to the sled.

Andover High Accreditation In Doubt

(Editor's Note: The League of Women Voters has been investigating Andover's secondary school curricula and facilities, in an attempt to familiarize the public with what's going on in the schools. This report represents part of their study.)

By Carolyn Hazlett
Education Committee,
Andover League of Women Voters

Andover High School may receive less than a 10-year accreditation because the school system did not comply with the facility recommendations made by the New England Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. The Association gave the high school a 10-year accreditation in 1970 and the school is to be re-evaluated by the Association in October.

In 1970 the Association listed 15 recommendations for the facility. To date only one has been complied with — the conversion of a weight-lifting room into a health education classroom.

The other 14 recommendations were to:

- Study future space needs (The high school population has grown from 1,245 students in 1970 to 1,484 in 1979.)
- Build an auditorium
- Improve accoustics in the school
- Finish the dirt room for storage
- Add space to store gymnastic equipment
- Improve the gym's public address system
- Expand the guidance department
- Build cabinets and shelves to store art materials
- Provide a paint room for industrial arts
- Soundproof music rooms
- Add more lights in band and chorus rooms
- Add space to store chemicals and other science materials
- Add equipped science classrooms
- Complete air-conditioning system in the library.

"I don't expect that we will get a 10-year accreditation," said Phillip Wormwood, principal of the high school, and system representative to the New England Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

"Since our last evaluation the Association has become stricter in their evaluations and less than half the high schools surveyed are getting 10 years."

Wormwood continued: "They are going to look at the capability of the town. Andover does have the ability to pay for more than it does and that's going to hurt."

When asked if he felt that the lack of an auditorium was the most glaring deficiency Wormwood stated, "The lack of an auditorium is serious, however, even more important is that we grew beyond the capacity of the building."

The disadvantages resulting from space inadequacies at the high school include: overcrowded classrooms; classes over recommended sizes; inadequate specialized areas including science laboratories, industrial art shops, library, guidance and cafeteria, and lack of study space for students.

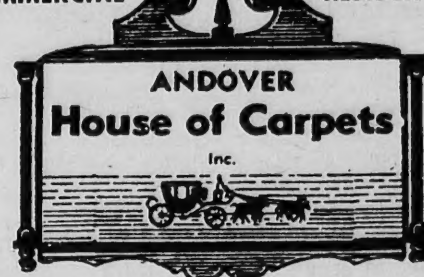

The school building program will be presented April 14 at the Spring Town Meeting. If it is approved then all recommendations will be taken care of according to Supt. Kenneth Seifert.

The New England Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges is one of six regional accrediting organizations in the United States, whose purpose is to maintain appropriate standards of education. Although the evaluating team of 25 to 35 educators and administrators will be spending Oct. 14 to 16 in Andover High, the process is already underway with total staff involvement. Committees have been organized within the high school to deal with self-examination evaluative criteria.

The Association's evaluation team will be composed of educators who volunteer for such assignments. They will be brought to Andover, housed and fed for the three-day period at an estimated cost of $7,000 to our school system. Many Members of our staff will, in turn, participate in the evaluation of 51 other New England secondary schools during the fall of 1980.

Stamp Show Set For March 8, 9

The Samuel Osgood Stamp Club of Lawrence will conduct its annual stamp exhibition and dealer's bourse, SOPEX 80, at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational High School, River Road, Andover, (located 1/4 mile east off the River Road exit of Interstate 93), on Saturday, March 8, 10 - 10, and Sunday, March 9 1 - 6. Approximately 50 frames of philatelic material will be exhibited by club members. Admission and parking are free. There will be a 20 dealer bourse.

The United States and United Nations post offices will have booths with their current stamps available for sale at face value to all visitors.

Mahoney, posing the question: "Is Technology Out Of Control?" The community is invited to his address in Kemper Auditorium, at 8 p.m., with no admittance charge.

Mahoney, a 1957 graduate of Phillips, is a professor in Princeton's program in the History and Philosophy of Science. His research and teaching have focused on the history of science, mathematics and technology, from antiquity to modern times. Currently he is investigating the beginning of analytic mechanics at the turn of the 18th century.

After graduating from PA, Professor Mahoney received his A.B. from Harvard College, studied at the Universitat Munchen, and received his Ph.D. from Princeton University in 1967. He is a member of the History of Technology, the Renaissance Society of America, and the National Humanities Faculty.

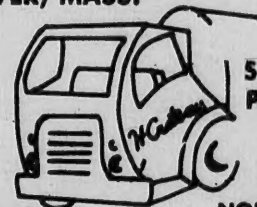

Friday Forum presents public affairs speakers and events at Phillips Academy. Recent speakers have been Massachusetts Senator Paul Tsongas and, most recently, Dr. William Harvey, president of Hampton Institute, as the Academy's Martin Luther King Speaker.

Train/Bus Schedules To Be Studied

The Advisory Board of the Merrimack Valley Regional Transit Authority at its Feb. 14 meeting, began the process of reviewing the schedules of both its rail and bus schedules. It also received presentations by Boston and Maine Railroad officials about the recent problems and corrective measures to insure on-time service.

At the request of the advisory board, Eugene Skoropowski of the Rail Planning staff of the MBTA discussed various options for increased off-peak and weekend service. Noting that the Merrimack Valley Line had been its most successful weekday rail expansion (as compared to the new Concord, NH, and Gardner, Mass. lines), but that the others outdrew us when weekend figures were added. He estimated a sizable increase in patronage with the introduction of both the weekend trains, and the mid-day, later evening trains. The board directed that a formal proposal be prepared for the next meeting (March 13 and 10 a.m. in Suite 401, 200 Merrimack St., Haverhill) that would outline service, and analyze the cost factors to insure that no participating community would have to increase its assignable costs by reason of the expansion of service. At the present time, other than for station improvements, Andover has no direct cost for the service as a result of federal and state subsidy.

The scheduling of local buses will also be considered, as the progress of a service development plan was speeded up to meet the increasing needs of a region feeling the effects of the energy restrictions. Instead of making just minor schedule time changes, the authority will look soon to increasing the service to create shorter waiting periods, probably only 30 minutes on the routes that serve Andover. This adjustment will probably be accomplished with the receipt of new buses in the early Fall.

James Stoezel, of the Boston and Maine Railroad, presented the operating statistics of January, noting a period in which various breakdowns of the service caused some massive delays. In response to those problems, the B&M has assigned a supervisor to remain at North Station to insure on-time departure, with back-up to cover route problems. Following the improvement of supervision, the service has been at a 100 percent on-time rate (given about 5 minute lee-way per hour of running time).

The change of service was noted in one recent problem when a scheduled train was inoperable; the supervisor was able to provide substitute equipment within 15 minutes of scheduled departure, and efficient operation brought that train into Haverhill within the "On-time" specifications. Overall, since the start of service in December, in-bound service has been about 96 percent on-time, and out-bound 76 percent. With the recent improvements of the out-bound service, that latter figure should be stabilized in the high 90 percent range very soon.

NEIGHBORHOODS . . . NOT PRECINCTS!

Our town is made up of neighborhoods, not political boundaries. Keeping in touch with those neighborhoods keeps us in touch with the real Andover. Selectmen should be striving to hear what all those neighborhoods have to say. Let's use our "NEIGHBOR POWER".

Mrs. Alice R. Harris

Seeks GOP Committee Position

Mrs. Alice R. Harris, 311 South Main St., Andover, will be a candidate for Republican State Committeewoman in the Massachusetts Presidential Primary election, Tuesday, March 4.

The wife of Selectman Edward M. Harris, she will seek the 1st Essex-Middlesex post on the Republican State committee. The district represents precincts six, seven and eight in Andover, along with the towns of Wilmington, North Reading, Boxford and other communities represented in that state senatorial district.

Mrs. Harris has been a member of the Andover Republican Town Committee for the past five years.

Union Will Go Along

Union members are more likely than the rest of the public to favor a national health insurance program accompanied by a tax increase, a study disclosed. Union members are as likely to support the current system of incremental changes as are non-union members, it is said.

Join Towne Deli's Saturday & Sunday Breakfast Club

There's something special about Saturday and Sunday morning breakfast at Towne Deli. It's fun time! Beginning at 7 o'clock our Breakfast Club is in session in the warmth and comfort of our bright and cheery surroundings. The chatter of friends and neighbors you meet here, added to the breakfast fare of your choice, gets your day off to a great start. Recommended for good digestion and complete relaxation.

Of course the catalyst is the good food and there is lots of it. Everything is fresh. For instance, our rolls, bagels and breads are delivered to us at 7 a.m. Our cream cheese, lox, Jewish-style corned beef, roast beef, turkey, ham, homemade soups, pastries and pies have made Towne Deli the talk of the town.

When leaving, pick up some of our select deli items for use at home during the week. It will prolong your enjoyment of Towne Deli's good food.

See you this weekend.

West Initiates Student Council

West Elementary School has a student council for the first time this year, with one representative from each homeroom in every grade elected or selected to serve through June.

The new student council has developed the following goals for the 1979-80 school year: to increase communication between students and adults; to develop problem-solving techniques; to encourage greater awareness of responsibilities toward classmates and property; and to develop an energy conservation program.

The student council has also developed a code of acceptable behavior for students traveling on school buses. Each month through June, the bus with the students who best follow the code will be named the bus of the month. The bus number will be posted on a special "Yellow Bird Honor Roll." More than one bus may be named each month.

The council plans to monitor the effects of this positive approach toward encouraging good bus behavior.

The following students have been named to the Student Council for the school year 1979-1980:

Grade 1: Representatives: Jennifer Wu, Kristen Hubbell, Michelle Murphy, Donna Coppola; Alternates: Todd Abernathy, Christina Chunias, Sean Tynan, Adam

Ruma.

Grade 2: Representatives: Stephen Spinelli, Leslie Wilkinson, Reed Newton, Patrick Finn; Alternates: Lynn Baker, Elizabeth Silva, Kristin Stanko, Erica Heartquist, James Hopwood.

Grade 3: Representatives: Brendan McGrail, Mary Ellen Green, Heather Koehler, Jennifer Chunias; Alternates: Doug Rogers, Paul VanDerWeilen, Christopher Kew, Karl Sandy.

Grade 4: Representatives: John Twomey, Allison Newton, Joshua Malitsky, Ernesto Martin, Liz Jurek; Alternates: Scott Friese, Danny Norris, Anne Stanko, Jeff Brodie, Geoff Wold

Grade 5: Representatives: Melissa Labell, Meaghan Sheehan, Robert Beanland, Kim, Wagner; Alternates: Lance Lee, Eileen Murphy, Karyn Bates, Katie Bonier.

Grade 6: Representatives: Russell Henderson, Julie Levay, Jamie Whitehouse, Steven Wu, Andy Frost. Alternates: Nick Lembo, Doug Rotondi, Kristen Robinson, Lisa Bellia, Maura Powers.

Sp. Ed.: Representatives: Andy Burke, Christopher Reese; Alternates: Scott Sarcione, Michell Dumont.

Pee Wee A's Chase Cup In Tourney

This weekend the Andover Pee Wee A Hockey Team will host the third annual Andover Cup Invitational Pee Wee Tournament to be played at the Phillips Academy Rink. Participating teams this year will be Andover, Concord, N. H., No. Andover, and Brunswick, Me.

In 1978, Andover won the first tournament with a 4-2 win over Chelmsford in the first round and a 3-0 shutout win over Norwood in the Championship Game.

In 1979, Andover was defeated in its cup defense, losing to eventual champion Chelmsford by a 7-5 score. Andover, however, placed three players on the all tournament team. These included forwards Zack Appar and Bill Donovan, and defenseman Jon Crawford. All three of these boys have graduated to Bantam level in 1980.

Making a second appearance in tournament play for Andover will be twelve-year-old veterans Shawn Bateson, Mike Del Trecco, Fran Ferrara, Tom Marjerison, John Marocco, and Shane Smith. Other twelve-year-olds appearing in their first tournament will be James Marocco, Steve Duncan, and Jeff Kennedy.

The eleven-year-old Pee Wees making their first appearance in this tournament include Earl Abdoo, David Bartle, David Curtis, Paul Gilmartin, George Heseltine, Mosa Kaleel, Cort Pomeroy, David Weymouth, and Greg Najar.

The ice schedule for the six game series, with all games being played at the Phillips Academy Rink, will be as follows:

Saturday, Feb. 23: 6 p.m., No. Andover vs Brunswick; 7 p.m., Andover vs Concord.

Sunday Feb. 24: 8 a.m. consolation; 9 a.m., cup championship; 11 a.m. tournament awards luncheon.

Tall Ships Reservations At Library

Reservations for a boat cruise to view the parade of the Tall Ships on Friday, May 30 are available through Friends of the Memorial Hall Library now. Members of the Friends Board of Directors have made a commitment for that day, the "opening gun" of Boston's 350th anniversary.

It is expected to be a gala event as nearly 50 majestic sailing vessels will gather from around the world to form a "parade of sail." The cruise is from 7:45 a.m. to approximately 3 p.m. at a price of $40 per person, which is less than the 'going rate' of $10 per hour.

Interested townspeople as well as members of Friends are invited to join this boat cruise for a close up vantage point view of the Tall Ships by signing up at the Memorial Hall Circulation Desk before March 6.

The early deadline is imperative as charter space is limited in Boston Harbor that day. One of the major charter companies is totally sold out. Friends have managed to locate another which is willing to hold places for us until March 6. A deposit of $10 will benecessary with your reservation by that date.

No Free T.V.

According to a Supreme Court ruling, the Federal Communication Commission's mandatory requirement that cable systems with 3,500 or more subscribers set aside free channels for use by the public, schools and local governments, is no longer valid.

South, St. Robert's Pace Division

By Rick Harrison

South Church and St. Robert's E both registered their seventh seasonal victories last week, highlighting Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Blue" Division action at the Sanborn, South School and West Junior High gyms.

South slipped past pesky St. Augustine F, 22-19, while St. Robert's E dumped Ballardvale United, B, 23-13.

In other Blue Division play, Baptist slugged St. Robert's D, 28-14, St. Augustine E trimmed Ballardvale United A, 20-14, and Christ Church A nudged West Parish C, 14-10.

Undefeated Christ Church B captured a pulsating 30-29 decision over previously-unbeaten West Parish B in their showdown, and details of that key contest appeared in last week's Townsman.

South, 22-19

This game was close from opening tap to final buzzer, with South clinging to leads of 8-6, 9-6 and 13-12 at the first three checkpoints.

Jeff Penner, Scott Wilkins and Rob Carpenter combined for eight last period points, as South hung tough for the triumph.

Penner finished the game with 8 points, all in the second half, while Phil Stocking contributed 5, Carpenter 4, Wilkins 3 and Dave Wade 2 points.

Other South standouts were Rob Hendry, Stephanie Kirkland and Scott Lattanzio.

Matt Geiger emerged as game-high marksman for St. Augustine F, pumping through 11 points.

Jeff Smith chipped in 6 and Paul Davies 2, while solid floor games were played by Ray Rourke, Tim Smith, Mike Lane and Chris Boyle.

St. Robert's E, 23-13

The key to victory was excellent tea defense by St. Robert's E, which forced Ballardvale United B into numerous turnovers.

The winners, who double-teamed BU standout Dave Baker for the first three periods, held United scoreless in the first and third stanzas while constructing a 21-6 lead.

Chris Concerni paced the balanced St. Robert's E attack with 8 points while Gerry Nassif, Larry Middleton and Steve Veilleux added 4 apiece.

S. J. Durso swished a basket and Chris Sapuppo converted a third period free throw.

Dave Baker still led Ballardvale B with 7 points, and single fieldgoals were contributed by Steve Sarcione, Tom Darling and Ellen Murphy.

Baptist, 28-14

Baptist raced to a commanding 13-0 first quarter lead over St. Robert's D, then traded baskets over the final three periods enroute to its fifth victory of the campaign.

Dave Hughes, whose nine points keyed the early surge, closed with a game-high 13 for the victors.

Tim MacDonald and Craig Sorrie popped in 6 points apiece, Dave Sorrie swished a pair of free throws, and Bobby Mattes notched a last quarter foul shot.

Also playing well for Baptist were Greg Matte, Steve Letch and Ginny MacDonald.

Mike Autiello led the answering fire for St. Robert's D with 5 points, Steve Rockwell pocketed 4, Steve Rikeman 2, Mike Moynihan two free throws, and Eileen Murphy one charity.

St. Augustine E, 20-14

St. Augustine E used a typically-balanced attack enroute to the victory, grabbing a 12-2 halftime advantage before coasting home.

John Moosa and Mike Moriarty, Sean Derrah and Dave Rourke contributed 4 points apiece, while Chris Colsiaand Dan Hegarty netted single baskets.

Justin Fox and Ryan Murphy were other

Fishing Workshop

In cooperation with the Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Wildlife, the Department of Community Services is pleased to present a series of workshops under the Urban Angler Program. Each workshop will focus on the basics of fishing — selection and use of fishing gear, learning fish habits and habitat, and discovering how urban waters can affect piscine life. The first workshop entitled "Introduction to the Urban Angler" will be held on Friday, Feb. 29, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the high school. Here's a chance for the veteran fisherman (women) to refresh their memory and fishing skills, as well as introducing this great sport to future "anglers."

Floor Hockey Finals

The consolation and championship games of this year's Grades 4, 5 & 6 Floor Hockey Tournament will be held at the West Jr. High School gymnasium on Saturday, Feb. 23. The consolation game will be at 10 a.m. with the finals getting underway at 11 a.m.

Elementary Gym Meet

Registration forms for this year's Elementary School Gymnastics meet are now available at the DCS office. These forms will be distributed to all elementary schools by Wednesday, Feb. 27.

Winter/Spring Registration

Registration is continuing at the DCS office at 36 Bartlet St., Monday through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. The following courses are only a small selection of the variety of courses that remain open for registration: photography, typing, Disco — all levels, dancercise, Fun Dances, Ballroom II, Latin Dances, Paddle Tennis, Spanish and Italian Conversation, Woodworking and Shorthand Refresher. Courses are filled on a first come, first served basis with Andover residents receiving priority. Mail registrations will also be accepted.

Girl's Basketball

As the DCS Girls' Basketball season begins to wind down its regular season play, the importance of the final games held in the next two weeks cannot be overemphasized. At 9 a.m., the Doherty Dribblers will face the Jets, While at 10 a.m. the Bancroft Bullets will play the Shawsheen Red Hots. The 11 a.m. half should see a hard fought battle between the Doherty Dunkers and the Sanborn Supersonics. The first place Blazers from Lawrence have a bye this week.

Boston Celtics — Soldout

Tickets for the March 2 game between the Boston Celtics and the Detroit Pistons have been sold out. Buses will leave for the game at 11:30 a.m. from the East Jr. High School parking lot, and return to the same parking lot about one hour after game's end.

Sugarloaf II Ski Trip

There are still a limited number of openings for the second high school trip to Sugarloaf Mountain, Maine, which will be held on March 7, 8 and 9. The trip, which is sponsored by the Department of Community Services will include round trip bus transportation, three meals, lift tickets for two full days of skiing, and lodging.

Moonlight Ski Tour

Despite the current lack of snow, the Department still plans to sponsor a moonlight ski tour on Wednesday, Feb. 27. Designed for the intermediate/advanced skier, this program will take participants on one of the best trails in Andover. Guides will lead skiers on a night when the moon is at its brightest. Guide-skier ratio will be 1:5. Interested individuals must register at the DCS office, Stowe School, 36 Bartlet St. Registrations will be accepted up to 4:30 p.m. the Tuesday before the scheduled tour.

Accessories To Enhance Your Home

Little decorative ideas can add so much to your home. Judy Morrison's presentation entitled "Accessories to enhance the home" will be offered on Monday, March 3 only from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Andover High School. Her specialty focuses around how to choose just the right picture frames for the many rooms in your home through a lecture discussion and by providing samples. A nominal fee will be collected at the door.

Participates In Festival In Scotland

Barbara Wright

The Women's Glee Club of Bridgewater State College has been accorded a great honor — and invitation to participate in the Strathclyde International Youth Choral Festival to be held in Glasgow, Scotland June 24-29.

Barbara Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wright of 11 Gould Road, Andover, is a member of this singing organization. Barbara is a junior majoring in Physical Education at Bridgewater.

Invitations were sent to outstanding collegiate choirs throughout the United States. Only three other choirs from Massachusetts received invitations and these choirs were from schools with established music majors — Harvard University, University of Lowell and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. As of this date, the Women's Glee Club, alone, will be representing Massachusetts.

An international experience musically has almost a magical effect on a choral program. The benefits to the individual have used music as a bridge to understanding other peoples. The participants no longer are bound by the geographical area in which they have lived.

The singers will leave for Scotland on June 21, flying from Montreal to London. Two days will be spent in London prior to the journey to Scotland to participate in the Festival. In addition to the varied choral events, in Glasgow, all participants will be given escorted tours to Edinburgh, Loch Lomond (home of the famed Loch Ness monster) and other places of interest. Time will also be allotted for shopping excursions and entertainment by the Scottish hosts.

Needlecraft Competition Is Planned

The Needlepoint Guild of Grace Episcopal Church invites all needleworkers in the area to participate in The Merrimack Valley Needlecraft Show to be held at Grace Episcopal Church, 35 Jackson Street, Lawrence, on May 1 - 3. Entry forms may be obtained at the church or from Chairman Mrs. John Privitera at 41 William St., Andover.

The competition will be limited to crewel, needlepoint, drawn threads, black work, white work, hardanger and Aida. There is no limit to the number of articles that may be submitted for judging, but all entries must be the work of a living person and entered in the name of the stitcher. Church work done by a group should be entered in the name of the church and signed by the person in charge of the needlework. There is no fee for entering and all items will be insured at the owners valuation to a maximum of $500. per item.

Entry forms must be received at Grace Church by April 15 and entries should be hand delivered to Grace Church between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on April 28 and 29.

Grace Church Needlepoint will be on display in the church during the show but will not be part of the competition. The Needlepoint Guild of Grace Episcopal Church has been in existence since 1976 when the first piece of needlepoint for the sanctuary was designed, worked and in-

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

This afternoon, Feb. 21, at 2 o'clock, The Haven Associates will be holding their monthly meeting. Everyone who uses or would like to use the services of The Haven is welcome to attend.

Next Monday, Feb. 25, Exercise for Health and Needleart classes begin for those who have signed up. Call The Haven to make sure they have room for you. Needleart has proven to be especially popular and the class, under the expert direction of Edith Stevens, fills up quickly.

And Monday afternoon is the date for the next in the Monday afternoon Movie Series. The feature length production to be shown is 'When Comedy Was King,' starring those masters of comedy, the Keystone Kops, Buster Keaton, and Harry Langdon, and the slinky vamp, Gloria Swanson. The movie starts at 2 p.m., and of course, it is free.

Feb. 26 the mini-clinic will be held at Frye Circle. Call the Board of Health at 475-7820 to make your appointment.

Every Tuesday morning a group gathers at The Haven to play bridge. If you are interested in joining, they are always looking for more "fourths." Come on down to the Andover Senior Center next Tuesday morning along about 9:30 and be a friend — be a fourth!

The Haven Singers will be performing at the Academy Manor Nursing Home Wednesday afternoon, the 27th, under the competent direction of Helen Robinson. If you like to sing, the group will be happy to have you join them. Except when they are performing elsewhere, they meet Wednesday afternoons at The Haven.

Oriental Rugmaking and Fun Dancing classes start Thursday, Feb. 28, in the morning, and the afternoon will feature the next in the Arm Chair Traveler Series — given by Phebe Ham — with a trip to India.

The Liquid Embroidery Class scheduled for Friday, the 29th, has been cancelled. Replacing it in the same time slot is a Quilting class under the direction of Marilyn Pratt. You'll want to let The Haven know you plan to participate.

The income tax man is coming regularly now each Monday to assist you with your returns. He will be happy to help you, but you must telephone The Haven to make an appointment. That way, the time you have with him is exclusively yours and he can help you unhurriedly.

It is not too early to sign up for the March 13 trip to the New England Center!

WESTern Roundup

By Tricia Gannon

West Junior High students enjoyed two very interesting assemblies last Thursday as a special treat before vacation. The first assembly was a performance by the Andover High school band. W.J.H. students enjoyed this well done concert and the faculty enjoyed seeing former West students again. The second of these assemblies was from the "Ensemble Afrique" who told us about African music and instruments. Their different song and dance numbers were well liked by the students who especially enjoyed participating in one dance.

The WESTern Stars awarded for the first time last week, enjoyed their luncheons with William Hart last Thursday and Friday. Seventh and ninth graders enjoyed their meals on Thursday as did the eighth graders on Friday. The luncheon consisted of pizza, coke, and a special WESTern Stars cake for dessert.

The 9th grade boys basketball team, which is undefeated thus far in the season,

Big Change

Spearfish, South Dakota, experienced a phenomenal 49-degree change in temperature in January, 1943, when the thermometer rose from minus 4 degrees Fahrenheit to 45 degrees in two minutes.

wiped out Lawrence last Friday. The team's high scorers were Todd Lockwood, Jeff Canovitch, and Dick Kelley with 19, 11, and 10 points respectively. The team is looking forward to the rest of their season and their next game will be today against Central Catholic at 3:30 p.m. in the W.J.H. gymnasium. Their last game will be Monday against arch-rival East Junior High.

The 8th and 9th grade girls basketball team beat Lawrence last Friday by a score of 53-12. Connie Corkery proved to be the high scorer with 17 points in this, the last game of their season. The girls had a fun filled and worthwhile season and Coach John Kennedy was very happy with the team's overall performance.

Mother's Day

On the first Mother's Day — May 10, 1907 — one way to honor mother was by wearing a carnation. The custom, begun by Anna M. Jarvis in Philadelphia, spread rapidly. By 1911, every state in the Union was participating in Mother's Day exercises the second Sunday in May.

Brooks Choir At Temple Service

The Brooks School Choir, under the direction of Mrs. M. J. Hackett will sing part of the liturgy at the Sabbath Eve. Service at Temple Emanuel, 7 Haggetts Pond Road, Andover.

Temple Emanuel has recently completed their new building and as part of a continuing effort to introduce the new building to the general community, a series of services are being scheduled. On Feb. 8 the Boy Scouts of America were visitors at the Service. This coming Friday night, Feb. 22, the beginning of the Jewish Sabbath, the Brooks School choir will sing at the 8:15 p.m. service. In addition to the music from the Sabbath Service the choir will also sing a special musical selection by Berger based on Psalm 145.

The faculty and student body, through the office of the headmaster, H. Peter Aitken, has been invited to the service and the collation following.

Edward Weiner, president of Temple Emanuel has also made known that during forthcoming services, until the official dedication on the May 16 to 18 weekend, many other events will take place.

On Friday, Feb. 29, at the 8:15 p.m. Sabbath Service, which marks the approach of the Purim Festival, church groups from Georgetown and North Andover will be visitors at the congregation.

This week's service, at which the Brooks School Choir will sing, also marks Interfaith Week. As in previous years, at the former location of the Temple in Lawrence, visitors from the community are invited.

The official dedication of the new Sanctuary, school building and auditorium is scheduled for May 16-18. At that time there will be an official invitation extended to all the Andover and surrounding communities to view the new Temple Emanuel on Haggetts Pond Road.

St. Robert's Lenten Lectures

This year's Lenten lecture series at Saint Robert's Church, Andover-Tewksbury, features Tuesday-night speakers beginning Feb. 26. Emphasizing the wisdom of many years of experience that the chosen lecturers' careers represent, the church in West Andover has invited five prominent prelates of the Boston area to give The Bellarmine Lecture Series for 1980. The youngest of them has 40 years in the Catholic priesthood. All are still very actively involved in fascinating special fields of study.

On Tuesday night, Feb. 26, at 7:30 p.m., Monsignor Matthew P. Stapleton, S.T.D., S.S.L., L.L.D., will speak. He is the retired pastor of St. Columbkille's Parish, Brighton, and former rector of St. John's Seminary. His academic career has focused on The Sacred Scriptures and he will share his knowledge of The Bible in some brief, practical Lenten thoughts, followed by a prayer service. Subsequent Tuesday sessions will bring to St. Robert's lecturers Monsignors James J. Keating, John A.

Cantwell, Joseph N. Moody and Edward F. Dowd. The public is invited to attend.

Fr. Collins Elected

Rev. Frederick Collins, of St. Robert Bellarmine Parish, Andover, presently serving on the board of directors of the Merrimack Valley Catholic Charities Centre, has been elected to the board of trustees of the Catholic Charitable Bureau of the Archdiocese of Boston, Inc.

The election was held at Boston's Museum of Transportation where featured speaker, Humberto Cardinal Medeiros, Archbishop of Boston, greeted the board members and said, "Catholic Charities is one of the most effective programs by which the Church today touches the lives of people who search for hope and love."

As a member of the board of trustees of the Catholic Charitable Bureau of the Archdiocese of Boston, Inc., Fr. Collins will help to oversee the distribution of a wide range of vital human services to some 20,000 people experiencing society's major social, psychological, spiritual, financial and community problems.

Ballardvale Church Joins Fund Drive

The Coordinating Council of the Ballard Vale United Church voted this week to accept their fair share quota in the Pension Fund Drive of the Southern New England Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The drive seeks to raise $3,000,000 over a four-year period to improve the pensions for the more than 400 retired ministers and surviving spouses in the conference. Ten per cent of the total amount raised will also be used for Capital improvements at the Rolling Ridge Conference Center in North Andover and Camp Aldersgate in North Scituate, R. I.

The Ballard Vale Church began its participation in the drive last Sunday by taking part in a Conference-Wide Pulpit Exchange. Rev. David Hollenbeck, pastor of Ballard Vale, preached in the Tewksbury United Methodist Church and Reverend Warren Odom was the guest minister here.

The Vale church will focus on a brunch to be held at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, March 9. At that time, a presentation, under the direction of Willard Robinson, will be shared with the congregation and each family will be asked to make a pledge to this campaign. Chuck Hempstead and Joyce Robinson will be coordinating a visitation on those unable to come to the brunch. Mrs. Florence Letters will chair the brunch. Grace Nicoll and Richard Heidt will work with Reverend Hollenbeck on promotion. Other Council members present and supporting this drive included Robert Fisk, Peter Cassell, Barbara Itz, Doris Smith, Phillip Duffy and Evelyn Itz.

Services To Begin At Seminary

The Franciscan Friars announce the opening of their House of Prayer at St. Francis Seminary, River Road, Andover.

To initiate their spiritual program, the Way of the Cross will be held every Friday during Lent at 7:30 p.m. to conclude with the Sacrifice of the Mass at 8 p.m.

On Sundays beginning Feb. 24 there will be a Holy Hour from 4 to 5 p.m., followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The general public is invited. For further information call Fr. Ernest or Fr. John Baptist.

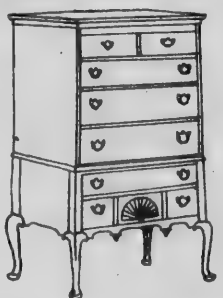

Concert

A concert of American Colonial songs, "Musick That Rejoyceth the Heart," will be presented by the Bradford College Department of Music and the American Culture Program in Conover Hall, Tuesday, Feb. 26 at 8:15 p.m.

Songs of faith, love and revolution will be sung by four vocalists directed by Charles W. Ludington, who will serve as reader. The singers will be accompanied on the harpsichord, guitar, and flute. The program will also include slides of American colonial artifacts and scenes.

The concert was first presented last fall for the Historical Society of Newburyport. It has since been presented under the auspices of the Friends of Kimball Tavern and of the Andover Historical Society.

Seminar On Finances

Did you know there are more than 700 references to financial matters in the Bible?

That's just one of the topics that will be discussed at a free seminar dealing with the Christian and his personal financial management, to be held 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 23, at the First Baptist Church, 101 School St., Salem, N.H.

The seminar, titled "Your Finances

Lecture At Temple Sunday

The Adult Education Committee of Temple Emanuel of Andover announces the continuation of its lecture and discussion program series on Sunday, Feb. 24 at 9:30 a.m. at the Temple Auditorium, 7 Haggetts Pond Road, Andover.

The guest speaker and discussion leader will be Rabbi Stanley M. Davids of Worcester, who will discuss "The Nature of Man in the Light of Jewish teachings and Modern Psychology."

The entire community is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Serving as spiritual leader of Temple Emanuel of Worcester, Rabbi Davids is known for his active role in several Jewish youth organizations which he helped establish throughout New England. He is currently an instructor in Judaism at Clark University in Worcester.

Arrangements for this program were made by Atty. Stephen Flashenberg, Joel Edelstein and Sheila Zeder who are serving on the Adult Education Committee. All are residents of Andover.

Ballardvale

Clark estimated it would cost up to $1,000 to build the temporary stud wall, which will support a 16-foot span and two foot by ten foot joists.

"Even with that the building will remain overstressed to support the library area," Clark said, indicating the work is more to remove the danger of building collapse permitting its reuse.

To assist selectmen in making a decision on the future of the Ballardvale building, Clark is preparing a number of reports which have been done on public buildings in the town, their use and the needs of the community.

He has also asked the building inspection department to do an in-depth examination of all public buildings in order to appraise himself and the selectmen with their condition and any code violations.

Clark said he understood there were code violations, particularly in some of the town's older buildings which may be in need of correction.

There is also the federal mandate to have all public buildings accessible to the handicapped by the end of 1980, an order he feels the town cannot meet.

But, he added, the reports, and studies will allow the selectmen to make decisions based on long lasting response to problems, rather than attacking such things as renovations on a piecemeal basis.

30 Concert Sunday At Academy

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 21, 1980

On Sunday, Feb. 24, at 3 p.m., in the Cochran Chapel, the Phillips Academy Concert Band and Academy Orchestra will present a joint concert.

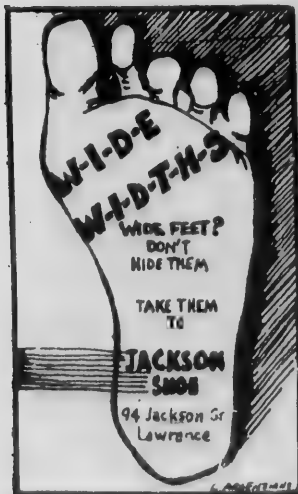

The Academy Orchestra, conducted by David Irwin, will open the program with Finlandia, by the Finnish composer, Jean Sibelius. Florence Pearson, an Academy violin instructor, will be featured soloist in the second and third movements of the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto in E minor. Mrs. Pearson a graduate of Wellesley College, has attended graduate programs in performance at New England Conservatory, with the Stradivarius String Quartet at Hartt School of Music, and as a Fellow at Tanglewood. She has performed chamber music and solo recitals throughout the East and Midwest.

Finlandia is Sibelius' most popular composition and has become the virtual national hymn of Finland. The Mendelssohn Violin concerto was an instantaneous success when first performed in the Leipzig Gewandhaus on March, 13, 1835. To our day, its grace, sweetness, and poetic songfulness have kept it a contender for the title of the most popular of all violin concertos.

The Concert Band will perform Gustav Holst's Suite No. 1 in E flat, one of the classics of the band literature; Vincent Persichetti's Serenade for Band; Strike Up the Band! by George Gershwin; Persuasion, an alto saxophone solo with band by Jazz composer/arranger Sammy Mestico; and selections from Richard Rogers' South Pacific.

Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

Board Delays Decision On Second School Closing

By Linda S. Corbett

The school committee Tuesday night chose not to tag a second school for closing down the road.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert had asked the board to decide now which school to close next, so that students redistricted with the closing of Doherty this spring wouldn't be uprooted again in two to five years.

The committee did, however, go along with Seifert's other redistricting guidelines, and Chairman Elaine Viehmann agreed with his "priority" label on two of them: keeping children of the same family together at the same school and ensuring consistency of services in all the schools.

Seifert indicated that the administration might actually begin putting new district lines on paper in the next week to 10 days.

Seifert said last week that deciding what school to close next should have a bearing on current redistricting plans. He said then that Shawsheen School would be the logical choice if current enrollment projections hold. However, if enrollments decline faster than anticipated, as they have in the past couple of years, they would need to close a larger school — one in the Bancroft-Sanborn-South size range.

The committee preferred to take a "wait and see" stance on a second closing. Committeeman Donald Robb said he'd rather review the enrollment projections on an annual basis, and Joseph Baglio, who has worked on the projections himself, urged them not to make the decision now.

Viehmann also felt that the school committee at that future time should be allowed to make their own decision. Perhaps, she said, they wouldn't want to close a school at all, but would opt for additional services or new grade groupings.

"Two years ago," she added, "no one would have suggested closing an elementary school and using it to replace East Jr. High."

Robb said he thought "the whole idea of disruption can be over-emphasized."

"I don't think it would destroy a child to be moved again," he said. "Our job in the system is to make any such changes as easy as possible."

He added that there is "no way we can guarantee to parents that their child is going to remain in his school through 6th grade. There might be another change. We'll review it each year."

The committee appeared favorable to Seifert's other redistricting guidelines, including providing a readiness class or two, housing a developmental primary unit at Bancroft, maintaining the traditional alternative at its present level, providing classroom space for special needs students as much as possible, maintaining or reducing the teacher/pupil ratio, considering the effect on junior highs, maintaining natural neighborhood boundaries, retaining previously redistricted pupils in their present schools, honoring requests for teacher transfers where possible, and limiting the bus rides to and from school to 30 minutes (except for students in alternative programs).

Seifert added another one Tuesday night, on the basis of a lot of calls from parents. He said many had asked if 6th graders could remain in their old schools, and said they would look into the possibility of moving sixth grades in tact.

Viehmann also added another consideration: that as Doherty students are moved into new schools, all the available spaces be filled before students already in that school are displaced.

Seifert said it was his hope to provide readiness classes "as needed," possibly one in Bancroft and one at West Elementary.

Every year, he said, there are about at least half a dozen youngsters per school who are "a little better than kindergarten but not good enough for first grade." He estimated that there were about 40 such pupils system-wide this year, and said that each principal will have a list of the ones they feel could benefit by the "gift of time," as they go about redistricting.

In some cases, he said, a youngster would be ready to move on to first grade after a few months; in others, a youngster

Pay Scale Keeps Position Unfilled

By Linda S. Corbett

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert indicated Tuesday night that a Spanish class at Andover High is in jeopardy because they are having trouble finding a teacher who will work for what Andover is willing to pay.

The position was vacated Jan. 28 when Beatriz Schinness left for another job. It already had permanent substitute status — because the regular teacher is on leave of absence — which pays at the beginning teacher salary, or Bachelor-Plus on the scale.

Seifert said he had had three qualified applicants, but all pulled out when they found the salary was fixed at that level by school committee policy.

"We've set certain policies to save money," he told the committee Tuesday, "and sooner or later it comes home to haunt."

He said one mother had complained that the Spanish III class hadn't met in three weeks, and was concerned for her daughter who would like to go on to Spanish IV next year.

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann did note that if the teacher who has been on leave for a year and a half does not return next year, the permanent sub status could be withdrawn and the position could go to a salary it should have.

In other personnel action, the committee accepted the retirements of James Enright, junior custodian at West Elementary since 1969, and Marie T. McCarron, Grade 5 teacher at Sanborn since 1963; and the resignations of Janet Scheerer and Schinness. Scheerer, a teacher of the perceptually handicapped at East Jr. High is on a leave of absence for the current school year. She has been with the system since 1974, while Schinness has been here as a permanent sub since August of 1978.

The committee granted a leave of absence for next year to Head Nurse Gertrude Kefferstan, who will be continuing her education.

Newly appointed were Nancy Arndt, media aide at Bancroft School, retroactive to Dec. 3 at $2.73 an hour; Carolyn Rahilly, clerk-typist in the personnel office, retroactive to Feb. 4 at $7497 a year; Elizabeth Sloan, secretary in the central office, $8021; and Joanne Tucker, secretary to the principal at Sanborn, $6289 for a 40-week year.

Aide hours were decreased from 25 to 21½ for Carol Mackay, teacher aide/noon-hour supervisor at West Elementary; from 25 to 21 for Carol Swift, instructional aide at South School, and from 21 to 25 for Rosemary Hempstead, instructional aide at South.

The school committee gave its okay for the administration to seek waivers from the State Department of Education for three resource room teachers who are currently working toward their certification in moderate needs: Joan Pierce and Joan Ruggiero at the high school and Joan White at East Jr. High.

The committee also approved two new positions: a full-time special needs aide at Andover High which would be funded by a federal Title VI-B grant, and a secretary to the occupational education program advisor/departement head at the high school, and upgrading of a full-time teacher aide position.

Schematics Acceptable

By Sue Aucella Deacon

The school building committee last week approved architect's preliminary plans for converting Doherty school into a junior high school, and voted unanimously to recommend the plans to the school committee.

After reviewing the plans Tuesday night, the school committee also voted to accept the plans, but only as schematic drawings. "This is not etched in concrete," said School Committee Chairman Elaine Viehmann.

The proposed plans must be approved by both the school administration and the state School Building Assistance Bureau (SBAB).

The plans describe an 83,000 sq. ft. basic core facility at the Doherty school, consisting of the present building plus a new addition. They do not include space for an auditorium and gymnasium.

At the suggestion of Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, the school building committee also voted to hire a construction estimator to determine the cost of using space in Memorial Hall for an auditorium and gymnasium.

The school building committee plans to consider the possible use of Memorial Hall at a Feb. 28 meeting in town hall.

The plans approved last week were developed by project architect Jerry Dion of Perley F. Gilbert Associates, and East Junior High principal Dick McGrail, who was recently appointed project coordinator for the school administration.

Presenting the plans to the school building committee, McGrail said the architect had done "what appears to be a magical job of getting an awful lot into a limited space. This is closer to what we've hoped for than ever before."

He added that while some parts of the plan called for "100 to 150 square feet more than what we asked for in some areas, that's what you face when you renovate rather than build a new structure."

The plans call for remodeling the existing Doherty building to include the following:

- An instructional Materials Center (I.M.C.) on the main floor, in what is now the teaching area for the primary grades, including work and meeting areas for adults

Did you know that the cost of heating this water may amount to 15% to 40% of your total annual heating bill? The Grumman Sunstream system can immediately lower hot water costs by preheating the water entering your existing water heating system. Money is saved because the solar heated water requires less conventional energy to raise it to the desired temperature. As the authorized Grumman Sunstream dealer in this area, we'll be happy to explain exactly how you can use the sun to lower your energy bills. Call us today for more information or an appointment.

Variations On A Theme

Andover's election lineup is set.

As of this week, nomination papers have been filed and the campaign is underway.

But, as has been the case in recent years, the turnout — the interest in presenting oneself for public service remains at an all-time low.

There are two contests on the ballot. Three persons seek the two seats available on the board of selectmen, and a similar number for the two openings on the school committee.

There was a time when Andover elections commanded a good deal of attention, several persons seeking the various municipal positions available and lively discussion preceding the election.

But, these past few years have seen a decline in interest in elective public service and it is an unfortunate turn of events.

Indeed, there is sufficient interest in municipal operations.

Just recently, when decisions were to be made regarding the closing of an elementary school in town, residents turned out in great numbers to protect their interests — namely their neighborhood school.

There has been considerable interest in the school building project over the past few years, with sufficient input and controversy during that time to sufficiently alter the project as originally proposed three years ago.

The building project and school program, so much discussed, will continue to be of prime importance to the school department and the school committee in the months ahead.

But little interest is shown lending one's talents to the decision making process.

Actually, the interest in serving on the school committee has not changed since last summer when a joint session of the selectmen and school board elected a member to fill a vacancy.

Three of those interested at that time, remain contenders for two of the seats to be filled by the voters in March.

As for the selectmen's race, the situation remains the same. An incumbent and two other men, have expressed an interest in serving as the town's top policy making board.

As such, they will oversee municipal budget development and operation, attend to policies regarding the town's growth and inject their thoughts into the structure of the town's tax rate.

But, while there may be many complainers about some actions during the course of the year, there are few takers to assume some of these responsibilities.

Similar comments can be assigned to the posts of moderator and housing authority members, the latter responsible for millions of dollars worth of public housing, where only the incumbents seek re-election.

Such apathy is a dangerous sign.

By a strange coincidence, Townsman personnel were recently involved in the judging of a high school newspaper contest in which one of the categories was editorial comment.

Many of the entrants had commented on the lack of interest in school elections, noting their importance in the general conduct of school activities.

What is interesting is that concern for such apathy at the high school level was apparent in several of the close to 100 newspapers examined.

As Andover's continued lack of interest in municipal service at the elective level continues, we would wonder if high schoolers in the state are becoming apathetic based on example set by the elders in the community.

If that be the case, then apparently there are troublesome times ahead, not only in Andover, but apparently throughout the state.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — February, 1905

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 in Borden gymnasium the Phillip Academy basketball team will play the strong Yale varsity squad. A good game is expected.

Flags floated over all the public and many of the private buildings in town Wednesday in honor of Washington's birthday.

The white partridge recently shot by Selectman B. Frank Smith is on exhibition in J. E. Whiting's store and is attracting much attention.

A horse owned by Daniel Carleton of North Andover ran away this morning and in its flight collided with one T. J. Farmer's pungs. The frightened animal was stopped in the square by Dana Clark.

Fully fifty members and friends of the Andover Burns Club were present at a meeting to discuss the local political situation and important town topics held in the Abbot Village hall last Saturday evening.

50 Years Ago — February 1930

"Once having tasted the fascination of the high spaces one is irresistibly drawn back to them in spite of hardships," said Captain Noel, the official photographer of the Mt. Everest expedition, as he told Tuesday evening at George Washington hall of his recent trip to the beautiful country of Kashmir, which he characterized as one of the most picturesque and lovable in the world.

In spite of falling temperatures and a flurry of snow on Wednesday evening, snowdrops in blossom and a robin and flocks or grackles are true harbingers of spring.

Andover Post 8 American Legion held its annual meeting preliminary to town meeting on Tuesday evening at the Legion headquarters with about 100 present. Before taking up the town warrant the candidates for public office were allowed to address the gathering.

Washington and McKinley's birthdays were celebrated Tuesday evening at the meeting of General William F. Bartlett Woman's Relief Corps, 127, in G.A.B. hall. One of the prettiest dancing parties of the pre-Lenten season was held Monday night in the Crystal Ballroom by the Mohican Market Employees association of Lawrence. Music was furnished by the Jersey Jive Jacs directed by Sam Hibbert of this town.

25 Years Ago — February 1955

In the brochure to be issued by the town office building committee there appears a drawing of a possible park development for the present town hall site in the event a new town office building is erected.

The Andover Visiting Nurse Association, Inc., membership campaign is progressing satisfactorily, the officers of the organization have announced in discussing their annual drive.

The School Committee is in disagreement over the school building committee's plan for a new 20-room high school on the Esther Smith property on Shawsheen Road.

An Andover man, William G. Perry, 67 Central St., has been named by President Eisenhower as a member of the commission of fine arts.

10 Years Ago — February 1970

There was further bad news for Andover taxpayers this past week with the announcement by Town Manager J. Maynard Austin that the free cash account for the town is $647,411 — the lowest it has been for 10 years.

A major issue as the annual municipal election draws near is flouridation of the water supply. The controversial chemical was introduced into the water system by the Board of Health several months ago, under a permissive statute allowing local boards to take such action.

The Annual Scholastic Art Awards Show in Boston is currently featuring the work of many talented Andover students.

The selectmen, at the request of the Andover Chamber of Commerce, will withdraw the article asking for funds for development of a downtown parking lot.

The Military Wives got together Monday night to attend a showing of "Cactus Flower" at the Showcase Cinemas.

JACK ANDERSON

WEEKLY SPECIAL

After Afghanistan --
What's Next, Russia?By JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- There is a new question mark hanging over the 1980s: What will the Russians do next? Strategists who have access to the best intelligence available believe the Soviets are embarked on a worldwide strategic offensive.

Their aim, according to the intelligence reports, is double-barreled. First, they hope to gain a stranglehold on oil routes to the West; and second, they want to disrupt any military cooperation between the United States and mainland China.

Here is how the Soviets are going about it: The invasion of Afghanistan has already given them air bases within 500 miles of the Hormuz Strait. This is the exit to the Persian Gulf and the only way out for tankers carrying oil to the Western world.

Intelligence reports also warn that the Soviets are preparing to expand their toehold on the Arabian peninsula. They are behind an effort to destabilize and subvert North Yemen, and they are using South Yemen as a base for slipping agitators into Saudi Arabia -- the country that supplies most of the overseas oil to the United States.

Soviet advisers and Cuban mercenaries are also helping Ethiopia prepare a major offensive against rebels in Eritrea. This would give the Russians access to Ethiopia's entire Red Sea coastline and make it possible for them to harass tank-ers in that area.

And there is evidence that the Soviets are trying to install a Marxist government in Guatemala. This would give them a base right next to Mexico's fabulous new oil fields.

Finally, intelligence reports warn that the Soviets are quietly encouraging North Korea to attack South Korea. Since the Chinese are allies of the North and the United States is allied with the South, this would probably disrupt the Chinese-American relationship.

Meanwhile, the Russian invaders are finding Afghanistan hard to digest. The land is harsh, and the people are hardy. They are fierce fighters, many of them descendants of Ghengis Khan's warriors.

They are probably the world's most ferocious horsemen. Their national sport, for example, is called "goat drag." The players disembowel a goat, fill it with sand, set it up and soak it in water. This makes the carcass almost too heavy to lift.

But the object of the game is to hoist the carcass on horseback, gallop around a pole and deposit it in a circle. The fun begins when a dozen hard-riding horsemen, armed with whips, slash one another in a frenzied scramble for the carcass.

It takes all of a player's strength, leaning from his saddle and hanging on to the stirrups by his boots, to pick up the goat carcass. Then he has to ward off the whips of the other players who try to steal it from him.

It's a brutal, bloody game and a fair indication that the Afghans are not going to be easily subdued by the Soviets.

But they are disorganized, divided among dozens of independent uncoordinated guerrilla bands. The United States is looking for a leader, a hero figure who can unite the Afghan resistance. If one can be found, say our sources, the United States might attempt to form a free Afghan movement around him.

Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., has written a private letter to Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, urging diplomatic recognition for an exile government. The idea is now being debated in the policy councils.

Footnote: According to reports we've received from Moslem insurgents in Afghanistan, the Russian invaders are also losing badly in the bazaars. One Red Army officer spent 150 rubles -- about $225 -- for a well-worn Playboy magazine. Another soldier was outsmarted by one wily merchant when he traded a gold wristwatch for a brightly colored piece of glass. The soldier was told that the glass fragment was a priceless gem.

STAR THREAT: Buried in FBI files is the story of a threat a year ago against three of Hollywood's brightest stars -- Bob Hope, Johnny Carson and the late John Wayne.

The documents tell of a right-wing fanatic who wrote to the three celebrities urging them to speak out against corrupt government. Later, he complained at a Greenwich Village meeting about the stars' failure to respond and one person he spoke to volunteered to take care of Hope, Carson and Wayne. The FBI report quotes this man as saying, "You are not to worry about any innocent people getting hurt because we are professionals."

The FBI took the threat seriously and noted that he should be "considered armed, dangerous and suicidal and should be approached with extreme caution."

The quick FBI interest scared off the would-be assailant, say our sources, and prevented a possible tragedy.

HEADLINES AND FOOTNOTES: No matter whether the boycott of the Moscow Olympics is successful or not, the Soviets will end up with a brand-new $300 million radio and television center -- financed mostly by capitalist networks ... President Carter's Democratic opponents have accused him of hiding in the White House to avoid debating the issues, and Senate Majority Leader Robert Byrd of West Virginia has now joined the chorus. He recently confided that the time is coming for Carter to get out of the Rose Garden and into the briar patch with the rest of the candidates.

Wants 'Vale Library Reopened

Dear Members of the Board of Selectmen:

It has come to my attention that the Ballardvale branch of the library has been closed — for what is to be an undetermined amount of time. The reason for this closing, as I understand it, is that the Ballardvale Community Center has been declared an unsafe building.

About two years ago, the residents of Ballardvale came together in many meetings with members of the town government, to see what could be done to save the building. They were assured that the building would be properly taken care of and would be able to continue as a source of pride and enrichment for the community. At one of the meetings, I recall Selectman Poore made a very moving speech in which she assured all of us present that all would be done to rejuvenate the building.

The library is a very important part of the community. It is easily accessible to all residents. Children and older people can walk to the library. It has an excellent reference section, which is a great help to the schoolchildren. The help given to the children is enormous, friendly and concerned and patient. There is a definite feeling of community when one goes there. There is no parking problem, very little of the congestion that is prevalent at Memorial Hall library.

Perhaps one of the most important functions of the Ballardvale branch of the library is the sense of history that is imparted to the residents. There have been exhibits of materials from the original Ballard Mills, pottery, paintings, old journals and other objects from the past. Children and adults alike can learn so much of the area's history — something we all need — a sense of continuity — a sense of having a past — to help lead us into the future.

It is my sincere hope that the selectmen will take into account the importance of the Ballardvale Community Center to the residents of the area. It seems to be that two years ago a promise was made and not fulfilled — that the Center would once again become a "center" for all that is important in Ballardvale.

The town of Andover has always been proud of its past and has an obligation to its future. Saving the community center in Ballardvale — and the library in particular is of utmost importance, and I urge you all to consider this at your next meeting.

Doherty's Clutch Shots Win Tourney

By Rick Harrison

Mark Doherty swished two clutch free throws with 12 seconds to play, lifting the talented Andover All-Stars to a pulsating 45-44 victory over the Fitchburg "A" Elks in the championship game of the first annual Mount Wachusett Community College Invitational Youth Basketball Tournament last Sunday in Gardner.

Doherty's heroics capped a long and tiring day for the Andover All-Stars, comprised of 7th graders as the champs were forced to play three games in six hours enroute to the title.

The locals, who went 4-0 in the tourney, had launched their bid the previous weekend with a convincing 68-23 romp over Greenfield "B."

In last Sunday's quarterfinal round, the Andover All-Stars eliminated a tough Fitchburg "B" squad 53-38 with a 9-0 burst over the final two minutes icing the decision.

Following a brief lunch break, Andover returned to action in the semifinals and ousted Northampton, 54-37.

After a 20-minute rest, the champs entered the title game against a Fitchburg "A" crew that was refreshed after receiving a bye through the semifinals.

Andover jumped to an early 8-0 lead, enjoyed a 32-21 advantage late in the third quarter, but had to hold as Fitchburg "A" staged a late rally against the fatigued Andover crew.

The tournament triumph was truly a team effort, with all 10 players contributing to the cause.

Members of the title squad are Tim Perry, Tom Lutz, Billy Lane, Dan Sheehan, Mark Doherty, Chris Comparato, Mike Melia, Rich Dunn, Austin Henderson and Robbie Barnard.

At the conclusion of the tourney, Tim Perry was named Tournament MVP, Tim, who led all tourney scorers with 70 points (17.0 average), was awarded a clock trophy and a jacket.

Tom Lutz, Perry, Dan Sheehan and Mark Doherty have been selected to compete in a special All-Star Game at Mount Wachusett next month to benefit the Heart Fund.

Championship Game

Andover, 45-44

The champs, playing a highly-disciplined zone defense and trying to conserve energy by not pressing for the first time in four games, jumped to an 8-0 lead against Fitchburg A as Tim Perry worked inside for two hoops, Tom Lutz added a basket and Dan Sheehan a bucket.

However, the poised Fitchburg club which had upset undermanned Greenfield A 42-34 in the previous round, battled back and trailed only 8-7 by the end of the period.

Andover, which never fell behind in the title clash, increased its lead to 26-17 by halftime with an 18-10 second quarter fun.

Perry pumped in 9 points, Sheehan 5 and Lutz 4 during the stanza.

Andover made good use of the free throw line to open the gap, hitting a creditable 6-of-12 charities in the quarter.

Billy Lane, Mark Doherty and Chris Comparato all played solid defensive games in the opening two quarters, as Andover held Fitchburg A scoring leader Bob Johnson (who finished with 14) to a mere two points.

Two buckets by Lutz and a third by Sheehan boosted the Andover advantage to 32-21 late in the third period, but Fitchburg refused to wilt and cut the deficit to seven on a pair of Johnson fieldgoals in the closing minute.

The rivals traded hoops over the first four minutes of the final quarter, and with 4:06 to play Andover held a 38-30 lead.

Fitchburg A then threw up some full-court pressure, forcing several turnovers, and Andover also hurried a few shots.

With Johnson and Steve Mazzaferro calmly swishing a number of downtown bombs, a Bob Duval doing 4-for-7 damage at the free throw line, Fitchburg A sliced the difference to 41-39 with less than a minute to play.

Lutz, Perry, Sheehan and Doherty contributed clutch baskets during the stretch run, but it all eventually came down to the final 12 seconds.

Doherty was fouled, and he stepped to the line for two crucial shots (it was an intentional foul).

With the coolness of a professional Mark calmly swished both shots to give the champs a 45-42 lead.

Andover applied minimal pressure on Fitchburg as it brought the ball upcourt for the final time, allowing Johnson to score an uncontested lay-up at the final buzzer.

Three Andover players hit double figures, netting Perry 16 and Lutz 14.

Sheehan chipped in 11 points, while Doherty finished with four.

Rich Dunn, Mike Melia, Lane and Comparato were also instrumental in the title-clinching victory.

Johnson and Mazzaferro shared point honors for Fitchburg, which also trimmed Westminster A in its opener, as they both hit 15 points.

Jeff Callahan added seven, Duval five free throws, and Tom Gagne had a bucket.

Andover held a slim 18-17 edge in fieldgoals. The champs hit 9-of-19 three throws and Fitchburg A 10-of-17.

Semifinal

Andover, 54-37

The champs struggled in the first half against Northampton, easing ahead 25-19 at intermission against a team that had previously eliminated Ashburnham (39-21) and Athol (40-35 in overtime).

The key was the third period, when Andover switched to a full-court man-to-man defense and proceeded to outscore Northampton 21-3.

Mark Doherty and Tom Lutz led the game-breaking surge with nine and six points respectively.

Billy Lane, Rich Dunn, Mike Melia, Austin Henderson, Robbie Barnard and Chris Comparato kept Northampton at bay in the final quarter.

The balanced attack saw nine different players contribute points for the champs, who led 14-10 after one period.

Tom Lutz shared game-high honors with 15 points, including 5-of-7 from the free throw line, while Mark Doherty chipped in 11 points and numerous steals off the full-court Andover press.

Tim Perry notched 8 points, Billy Lane 7, Chris Comparato 6, Robbie Barnard 2, Dan Sheehan 2, Rich Dunn 2 and Mike Melia one point.

Quarterfinal

Andover, 53-38

Fitchburg B, which had opened tourney play by ousting Fort Devens A, cut a 14-point halftime deficit to six points with two minutes left before Andover ran away and hid.

Tim Perry, enroute to this second straight 23-point performance, swished six in the opening quarter as the champs inched ahead 11-9.

Perry added six more and Mark Doherty four points in the second period, when Andover built the lead to 27-13 with a 16-4 run.

The clubs traded buckets in the third quarter, with Perry (5) and Tom Lutz (4) keeping Andover safely ahead, 40-27.

Fitchburg B escaped on an 11-4 tear over the first six minutes of the fourth quarter, cutting the gap to 44-38.

The last nine points of the game belonged to the champs, however, as the full-court press led to key baskets by Perry and Comparato. Lutz and Dan Sheehan also chipped in free throws down the stretch.

Six players scored for the Andover All-

Christ B Still Undefeated

Christ Church B remains undefeated atop the Andover Church Basketball League Junior division after posting its eighth straight victory last week.

Christ B stayed unbeaten with a 21-2 triumph over South Baptist.

In other Junior action St. Augustine B downed Ballardvale United, 14-4. St. Augustine B downed Ballardvale United, 14-4. St. Augustine D edged St. Augustine A, 12-9. St. Robert A beat Christ A, 7-3, and St. Augustine C won an overtime thriller over West Parish, 18-12. St. Robert B drew a bye.

St. Augustine B, 14-4

St. Augustine B made Ballardvale United its first victim of the season, breaking the game open with a 6-0 run during the pivotal third quarter.

Jeff Brodie paced the winner's attack with 6 points, all in the second half. Jeff Edwards and Paul Demarco netted 3 markers apiece, and mini-guard Stephen Spinelli popped in an third quarter bucket.

Brad Reghitto and Mike Smith were other St. Augustine B standouts.

Jim Ward and Andy McIntyre led the United offense with solo baskets.

Kim Lowe, Kim Nutter, Sean Cassidy and Chris Lowe also played well.

Christ B, 21-2

Christ B raced to a 12-0 first half lead against South Baptist and was never threatened thereafter, as six different players contributed points.

Bart Kalkstein led the victors with 9 points, Dave Stark chipped in 4, while James Robinson, Andrew Warren, John Knowles and Jonathan Pratt added field goals.

Chris Eggert provided the SB offense with a fourth quarter bucket, while other standouts were Robbie DiAdamo, Andy Hagar, Jim Hendry and Dana Orlando.

St. Augustine D, 12-9

St. Augustine D (6-1) gained sole possession of second place by stopping a last quarter comeback that just fell short for St. Augustine A.

The D team led 6-2 at halftime, increased it to 10-4 after three quarters, and then barely managed to hold off a late fourth period countercharge by the A team.

Andrew Peck and Matt Fardy flipped in 4 points apiece for the D team, while single buckets were garnered by John Davies and Kyle Murphy.

The A team featured a balance offense with Mike Flynn, Matt Dufresne, Todd Morton and Tom Stelzer garnering solo buckets and Sarah Leary contributing a fourth quarter free throw.

St. Robert A, 7-4

Trailing 3-1 after three periods, St. Robert A rallied behind the sharpshooting of Eric Green and Tom Sheehan to outscore Christ A 6-1 in the final stanza, in registering its fifth win in seven decisions.

Green tossed in 4 points for the winners, all in the ifinal stanza, Sheehan netted 2, and Jim Murphy hit a charity toss.

Dan Fay, Matt Gibson and Jim Lemieux were other St. Robert stalwarts.

Steffin Tomlinson led the answering fire for Christ A with a second period hoop, while John Russell and Mark Angelos each popped in single free throws.

David Lopes and Heather Blair also turned in strong efforts.

St. Augustine C, 18-12 (OT)

Stephen Surrence (4) and Peter Radulski (2) combined for 6 overtime points to spark St. Augustine C to its fourth victory in eight games.

West Parish playing its best game of the season led 12-10 after three periods, but a Radulski hoop in the final stanza deadlocked the score at 12-12 and forced the overtime play.

Surrence was game-high marksman with 8 points for the victors, Radulski notched 6, and Brandon McCue added 4.

Jason Fox, Bob Antonucci, Mike Harrison and Craig Knight also played well. Scott Clementi netted 5 points for West, Doug Bruk hooped in 4, and Fred Newcomb swished 3.

John Hess, Kimberly Brown and David Orrick were other standouts.

Bullard Awarded Letter

William R. Bullard II, a senior at Trinity College in Hartford, Conn., has been awarded a varsity letter for the 1979 fall season. Bullard was a member of the 2-9 varsity soccer team and played midfield for the Bantams. He also received a Trinity gold award as a three year varsity letter winner.

Bullard, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman G. Bullard of 107 Highland Road in Andover, is a 1976 graduate of the Berkshire School.

DCS Girls Basketball Results

With two weeks to go in the regular season, the St. Mary's Blazers have established a firm hold on first place in the Department of Community Services Elementary School Girls Basketball League.

This past weekend the Blazers boosted their undefeated record to 5-0 as they trounced a younger and inexperienced Jets squad by a score of 18-2. Once again the Blazers came up with a balanced offensive attack as six players dropped in points for the league leaders. Top scorers for the winners were Ann Hidalgo, Lilly Caminero, and Patricia Dignam — all with four points each. Lone scorer for the Jets was Marci Lebowitz.

In other games, the Doherty Dunkers managed to sneak by the Shawsheen Red Hots in a 12-8 game that boosted the Doherty team's record to 3-1. Jennifer Ippolito and Cathy Dehm each scored 4 points for the Dunkers, with Laura Hayes and Susan Oskar sinking one bucket apiece. Shauna Gallagher put on an outstanding offensive show for the Shawsheen Red Hots as she sunk six points in a losing effort. Shelly Rocker added two more for the Red Hots as the team's record dropped to 1-3.

The Sanborn Supersonics soundly defeated the Bancroft Bullets 10-2 as Ronnie Kouner slipped six tallies through the net and led her Supersonics team to its third victory of the season.

Karen Pike and Carolyn Tiberi each added two points to the Sanborn cause. Lone scorer for the gutsy Bancroft squad was Mellissa Johnson with two points.

Troop Goes Ice Fishing

Boy Scout Troop 102 held a combined ice fishing and hockey game recently at Foster's Pond. About 15 boys and adults attended. An experienced ice fisherman demonstrated the finer techniques of the sport, including the use of traps.

This event is only one of many planned for the re-organized troop. Other activities will include the annual ski trip to Sunday River, March 21-23, a tour of the General Motors Plant, a visit to the Budweiser Brewery and a 50 mile bicycle trip and campout.

Under the direction of Lane Porter, scoutmaster, and Darrell Bates, committee chairman, plans call for growth that will encompass all aspects and principles of scouting.

Emphasis will be on the personal growth and achievement of the individual boy.

The troop is actively seeking new members and any boy wanting to join the troop is welcome to attend the regular meeting held each Monday evening at 7 p.m. at the Bancroft School. Any boy or parent wanting more information, call Darrell or Chris Bates.

Fine pearls are obtained from an inedible oyster of the genus Meleagrina, that lives in warm parts of the Pacific. Edible oysters never produce valuable pearls.

Robert's triumphed over St. Augustine A. The winners, who limited their starters to sport play, led 12-10, 18-10, 28-14 at the first three check points.

Joining Bates in the scoring parade for St. Robert's were Eddie Melia, Chris Fay and Ken Saliba with 4 markers apiece, Barry Lemieux added 3 free throws, and solo baskets were scored by David Collins, Robert Veilleux and Bobby French.

Tim Hurley hit double figures for St. Augustine's with 10 points, Martin Yaghmorian netted 4, while John Geiger, Jerry Fox, Tom Bolduc and Tom Tiberii tossed in a bucket apiece.

West Parish A, 43-33

Divisional scoring leader, Bill Weidman, poured in a season-high 25 points to spark West Parish A to its fourth victory in eight games.

West led 9-8 after one period, increased it to 23-15 at halftime, and then the rivals played almost even the rest of the way.

Chris Marcella chipped in 9 points for the winners, 7 of them in the first half, John Robbins added 5, and Jim Lowe fired in 4 points.

Steve Lacourse and Steve Farrington shared scoring honors for St. Augustine with 9 points apiece, Tom Murphy and John Sheedy delivered 4 markers each, Bob Scanlon 3, Peter Scanlon 2 and Jim Stelzer 2.

St. Robert's West In Showdown

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 21, 1980

By Rick Harrison

Both St. Robert's B and West Parish A chalked up victories last week in the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate "Gold" Division, setting up their showdown battle next Monday night at the West Junior High gym.

Defending champ St. Robert's B has already clinched at least a tie for the title, but West A could grasp a share of the crown by defeating St. Robert's B next Monday night.

The clubs met once before this season, with St. Robert's rallying from a 10-point halftime deficit to eke out an 18-16 triumph.

This past week St. Robert's B trimmed St. Augustine B, 35-24, while West Parish A dumped St. Robert's A, 32-21.

In other "Gold" games, St. Augustine A overpowered St. Augustine D, 39-26, and St. Robert's C slipped past St. Augustine C, 21-14.

St. Robert's B, 35-24

Davd DuHadway and Bobby Dziadosz combined for 27 points, as once-beaten St. Robert's B ran away from St. Augustine B in the final period.

The defending champs led 5-2, 11-7 and 20-18 at the first three breaks, before Dziadosz pumped in eight fourth quarter points to key a pivotal 15-6 run.

DuHadway finished the game with 14 points, Dziadosz added 13, Joe Vecchi 3, Matt Chinchillo 2, Myles Greenberg 2 and Jeff Smith one free throw.

Chris Chinchillo also played well for St. Robert's B, which once again played without consistent scorer Billy Deppe.

Divisional scoring leader Tim Reilly (131 points) was virtually the entire show for St. Augustine B, pouring through 23 points, while Mike Powers contributed a solo free throw in the second period.

St. Augustine B was depleted with the absence of high-scoring Rich Sullivan, Pete Zompa and Andy Zompa.

West Parish A, 32-21

Twice-beaten West A kept its title-sharing hopes alive with its fourth straight victory, shaking St. Robert's A in the second half.

West A clung to a slim 13-11 halftime edge, but Lisa Marcella swished seven third period points to spark an 8-2 outburst that broke the game open.

Billy Lane tossed in six points in the final stanza, as West A pulled away for the 11-point victory.

Lane (110 points) once again led all marksmen in the game with 17 points, while Miss Marcella also reached double figures with 11.

Greg Hopwood contributed three fourth quarter free throws, and Eric Nickerson converted a foul shot.

Mike Melia stuffed 10 points, Chris Smith scored his 7 in the first half, and single buckets were notched by Kevin Byrne and John Williams.

Charlie Sheehan and Sara Michelle Sapupo were other St. Robert's stalwarts.

St. Augustine A, 39-26

Trailing by eight points at halftime (22-14), revitalized St. Augustine A outscored St. Augustine D 25-4 in the second half to win the game easily.

The victors pulled back into a 24-24 tie entering the fourth quarter, and went on a 15-2 rampage over the final seven minutes.

Tom Lutz led the A-team to its second consecutive victory and fourth in five games, pouring through 24 points including 19 in the second half.

Scott Grant flipped in 8 points, John Morrow 4 and Tom Hollenbeck 3 for the winners.

Kevin Rourke pocketed 12 points, Chris Bartley 9, Scott McAllister 3 and Steve McGettrick 2 for the D-squad.

St. Robert's C, 21-14

St. Robert's C, with 10 healthy players, constantly threw in fresh troops to apply full-court pressure and wear down undermanned St. Augustine C.

St. Augustine led 6-0 after one period and 12-5 at half, but St. Robert's closed to 14-11 after three quarters and won the game with a 10-0 burst in the final stanza.

The Veilleux brothers, Jim and John, paced the charge with 8 points apiece. Jay DuHadway returned to the lineup and contributed a fourth quarter basket, while Geoff Dowell had a bucket and Tom Dolan a free throw.

Austin Prep Honors

Ten Andover residents are among the honor roll students for the second quarter at Austin Preparatory School, Reading.

First Honors were achieved by Sophomore Dennis Glynn and Junior Thomas J. Glynn.

Second honors were achieved by Freshman Mark Connolly and Mark Sullivan; sophomores John Cohan, Michael Darwin and Christopher Saulnier; Junior Peter Iannazzi; and Seniors James J. Connolly and Joseph Torrisi.

Pee Wee 'B'

Andover's Pee Wee B's completed a very successful week last Saturday night with a 9-5 victory over Haverhill. Earlier in the day the B's had played an excellent game against Tewksbury, losing a hard fought contest 6-4. On Wednesday, the B's played another excellent game in Danvers, defeating Masconomet 2-1.

Andover 2, Masconomet 1

Masconomet had been tied with the Pee Wee B's for third place in the Danvers Twin Rinks League before this contest. Masco opened the scoring midway through the first period, despite some good fore and back checking by Andover's line of Billy Bruno, Chris Madden, and Tommy Herling and excellent defensive work by Matt Shine and John Gangi. Goalie David Barry turned away everything else Masco threw at him in the period. Andover tied the game up in the second period, as Jeff McNeil, Paul Fuchs and Timmy Donovan were out. Mark Paskowski, who was filling in at defense because the B's were shorthanded due to illness, fed Jeff McNeil with a nice pass and Jeff skated it in and put a shot by the Masco goalie. David Young and Ronnie Forbes then put a lot of pressure on the Masco goalie but he kept making the big saves. Victory came with less than four minutes left in the game on a play begun by defensemen Sandy MacNeish and Brian Gibson. Sandy carried the puck into the Masco zone and was broken up. Brian Gibson picked up the loose puck near the faceoff circle and fired it on net, with the Masco goalie making a partial stop. As the puck trickled across the crease toward the goal, Paul Fuchs pounced on it and put it in for the 2-1 lead and the victory. Masco then threatened a few more times but Matt Shine broke up two rushes and Kenny Young made some excellent saves to insure the win.

Tewksbury 6, Andover 4

On Saturday afternoon, the B's played one of their better games of the year in the Wilmington Youth Ice Arena League before falling to Tewksbury 6-4. The first half of the game was all Tewksbury. After being sloppy in their own end and not giving goalie David Barry much help, the B's came to life, scoring four goals in a row after trailing 5-0. Andover's first goal came halfway through the second period.

Matt Shine picked up a loose puck in the defensive zone and let a rush up the right side. After crossing the blue line he fed David Young who then put a nice pass on the stick of Timmy Donovan who was parked in front. Timmy put a quick wrist shot by the Tewksbury goalie. Andover scored its second goal a little more than a minute later, as Paul Fuchs put one in after taking a nice pass from Mark Paskowsky. Four minutes later the B's closed it to 5-3, as Chris Madden, who hustled throughout the game, scored from a scramble in front. Assists on the play went to David Young and Timmy Donovan. Andover then made it 5-4, as Billy Bruno put one by the Tewksbury goalie. Jeff McNeil picked up his second assist of the game on the play. Tommy Herling, Sandy MacNeish and John Gangi then had chances to tie the game up but the Tewksbury goal tender came up with some excellent saves. Kenny Young was spectacular in the Andover goal as his teammates made a game of it. Tewksbury then scored a fluke goal on a bouncing puck to make the final score 6-4. The B's deserve a great deal of credit for their play in this game, never giving up and coming back from what began as a rout to keep Tewksbury on the ropes for the entire second half of the contest.

Andover 9, Haverhill 5

The Pee Wee B's came back from their afternoon disappointment to register a convincing 9-5 win over Haverhill in a non-league contest at Phillips Academy Saturday night. The game was not as close as the four goal spread would indicate. The score got to 9-2 before the B's got a little sloppy and forgot about the defensive end of the ice. Andover goalies David Barry and Kenny Young each made some good saves when the game was still a contest. Jeff McNeil, Tommy Herling and Billy Bruno led the Andover scoring parade with two goals each. Sandy MacNeish, Timmy Donovan and Paul Fuchs picked up single goals. Assists went to John Gangi (2), Tommy Herling, David Young, Paul Fuchs, Jeff McNeil and Billy Bruno. Chris Madden played a very strong game at forward and new defense partners Matt Shine and Mark Paskowsky controlled play in front of their goalies whenever they were out on the ice. The Haverhill win was very much a team victory as all of the players are putting extra shifts each game as the flu continues to take its toll.

Squirt 'A' Team

Wilmington League

Andover 2
Methuen 4

The Squirt A's, having lost several regulars to the flu, held off a strong Methuen offense throughout the game, and had them tied at two goals apiece with less than five minutes to play. But then Methuen simply overpowered a tired but still willing defense for two quick goals to take the win. In the first period, Chris Hansberry in goal made some exceptional saves, and with help from defensemen Peter Trede and Dana Forbes, held off several strong bids. At the other end Kyle McCabe and Chris Sapuppo put on some pressure of their own on an alert Methuen goalie, and the period ended with neither team able to score.

Andover's defense continued to stand up through the second period, with Defensemen Matt Young and Tom Tormey not only breaking up scoring chances, but starting some good rushes out of the zone. Wing Mike Nelligan contributed some effective backchecking to help contain an excellent Methuen center, and keep plays from getting started. Hansberry continued to stymie Methuen's offense, making three consecutive saves on one play before smothering the puck in the crease. Near the end of the period, Jamie O'Brien scored a power play goal with assists to McCabe and Sapuppo, and a lot of help from Young and Trede at the points.

Fire Rate

To conserve fuel, reduce the fire rate of your oil burner. During the era of abundant, cheap oil, burners were oversized, resulting in wasted oil. A 25 percent reduction in the firing rate, achieved with adjustments made by oil supplier service personnel, can mean an 8 percent energy savings.

Early in the third period, Methuen tied the game with a strong sustained attack, and a few minutes later, forced Andover into disorganized play and pulled ahead with another goal. Andover settled down again and Steve Donovan started some good rushes. Matt Alden added some heavy work around the Methuen net, but good goaltending denied all bids, until Sapuppo broke in through two defensemen for a shot from a tough angle. The shot was blocked, but the goalie couldn't recover and Tom Tormey rushed in to tap in the loose puck and tie things up again. Then Methuen dominated to put away the win. Andover played the last minute with the goalie pulled in favor of an extra skater, but despite a very strong attack, they were held off the board.

Wilmington League

Andover 2, Wakefield 3

The Squirt A's lost a heartbreaker to Wakefield in a strong, evenly played game, that saw each team get it's share of breakouts, effective defense and miscues. But unfortunately the puck bounced a little better for Wakefield, and Andover had a little more trouble taking the man out at the right time.

Chris Hansberry continued strong play in goal, and got plenty of help from defensemen Tom Tormey, Peter Trede, Matt Young and Mark Berberian. Mark started a couple of strong rink long rushes to put on offensive pressure.

Wakefield held a 2-0 advantage early in the third period, when Andover put on an impressive power play, and Matt Alden drove a shot in, with assists to Jamie O'Brien and Chris Sapuppo. But minutes later, with Andover a man short, Wakefield re-established its lead. Pat Breen almost scored following the next faceoff, taking a perfect lead pass from Mike Nelligan, faking a defenseman and putting a shot on the far corner. But the goalie just managed to get his skate over for the save. On the next shift O'Brien, Sapuppo and Kyle McCabe traded passes to set up Sapuppo in the slot for a high shot that brought Andover within one again. With the goalie out, and seconds left on the clock, O'Brien created a 2 on 1 break and slid a pass across the goal mouth to Sapuppo, but an alert Wakefield goalie forced a quick shot, and the intended equalizer hit the post and bounced out.

Danvers League

Andover 4, Wilmington 5

This week the Squirt A's have been ravaged by the Flu, and have been playing tired and with reduced members. Against Wilmington they played well enough to win, but a couple of let downs let Wilmington make some fine moves through for scores that couldn't be made up.

With Wilmington ahead in the first period, and on a power play, Peter Trede broke out of the defensive zone and almost scored on a fine individual effort. Pat Breen worked hard to control the puck in the corner, until he could get a pass to Bob Stoltz in front and Bob jammed a score under a fallen goalie on good second effort.

After Wilmington scored two more quick goals, Andover settled down again. Tom Tormey broke up a two on one rush. Mike Nelligan was ridden off on a good rush, but got the puck from behind the net to Matt Alden who slid a pass across to Chris Sapuppo for a clean shot into the open corner. Several times, Dave Ridiford was effective on penalty killing, but the effort took it's toll, and Wilmington scored two more quick goals. Andover continued to play catch up and eventually pulled within one goal, while goalie Chris Hansberry kept Wilmington at bay through the final 15 minutes of the game with good defensive help from Matt Young. Matt Alden stole a clearing pass 15 feet in front and drove a strong wrist shot past a surprised goalie.

Andover played a strong third period, and Pat Breen stole another clearing pass and beat the goalie again to pull within one. With a minute left, Andover pulled the goalie, but despite a strong flurry by six skaters, couldn't get the equalizer.

Squirt 'B' Team

Andover 4, Ipswich 2

The Squirt B's held a territorial edge over Ipswich throughout the game, but a determined defense held them off the scoreboard until the dying minutes of the first period. Then Pat Breen got his first of three assists, working the puck loose from the left corner to set up Robert Stoltz, who jammed the puck under the goalie after a couple of rebounds.

Early in the second period, Breen set up another goal when his shot from close-in was blocked, but was picked up by Mike Nelligan, who deflected a shot off the goalie and into the corner of the net. Andover put the game out of reach when Stoltz rushed down the left side and slid a perfect lead pass to Tom Tormey breaking through the middle for a pretty flip shot into the top corner. Ipswich then got its first goal on a strong breakout, and the teams settled down to play a scoreless game until the middle of the third period when Breen started a strong rush and got off a partially blocked shot. Tormey came charging through to drive in the loose puck, which he then followed into the net on his own momentum, taking the goalie with him! Ipswich scored once more, but Andover contained them well for the rest of the game. Chris Hansberry, in goal, saved a couple of breakaways to assure the win and got good help from defensemen Dan Hagerty and Mark Duncan, both of whom switched to wing positions near the end of the game and provided some excellent offense. Doug Blezinski made a couple of rink long rushes during the game, and almost added to Andover's score. Steve McSweeney and Glenn Farnham provided consistent offensive support to the sort of overall team effort which accounts for the Squirt B's

"One of the Ten Best Cars For a Changed World"

It may well be that overall the Audi 5000 has been our most successful long-term test car project. We accumulated mileage at a blistering pace, had a constant list of drivers anxious to use the car. Everyone on our staff still looks forward to driving the Audi, particularly when it comes to carrying four or five adults or a family with children on trips. And while it has not been the least expensive car we've tested for 48,000 miles, it has returned the most value — it's been the most comfortable, has been relatively trouble free, and has delivered very good fuel economy relative to its size and carrying capacity. After living with it for more than 48,000 miles, we don't have any qualms in reaffirming our praise of the Audi 5000 as one of the Ten Best Cars for a Changed World. January 1980 Road & track.

Cummings Named By King

Andover resident, Robert E. Cummings has been appointed by Governor Edward J. King to a special legislative commission investigating the siting of hazardous waste facilities.

Cummings took the oath of office last week, joining a 19-member special commission created by the Massachusetts Hazardous Waste Management Act (Chapter 704 of the Acts of 1979).

Cummings, 50, serves as the private industry representative to the commission. He is currently Plant Manager of Monsanto Industrial Chemicals in Everett, where he has worked since 1961. Cummings is a 1950 graduate of Lowell Technical Institute.

Cummings is one of five people appointed by the governor to the special commission, which has been directed to submit the results of its study, and its recommendations to the General Court by June 25.

Bobsledding

Olympic-style sledding is a precise science with split-second timing. Bobsleds surge at a powerful 90 mph, and a good start is 30 to 40 percent of the race. Team members rock the sled to develop a rhythm, push it across the starting line and jump on. Once in motion, the sled is kept on course by shifting weight. One bad turn can ruin a run. Since each heat takes about a minute, each second counts. The new Lake Placid run is among the best and fastest in the world.

Schematics

- A health suite, in part of the present I.M.C.
- A music area, in what is now the gymnasium (McGrail cited the room's high ceiling as one reason for this decision)
- An administrative area
- A teachers' lounge
- A guidance area
- A resource room (special education classroom) in what is now the art room
- A student activity and storage area, suitable for large groups, off of the cafeteria
- A kitchen and cafeteria
- And, where the present building now ends, a courtyard, ("to make it more attractive and, the primary reason, for light," McGrail said).

McGrail also described a new section to be added to the existing Doherty, which would include, on the first floor:

- A typing, industrial arts, and graphics area
- A classroom for training the mentally retarded, including toilets and a shower within the room itself
- A classroom for the handicapped (McGrail explained that all special education rooms would be "located in the same general area, a desirable area, but not all blocked together in one space")
- A homemaking and art area
- And an expanded kitchen and dining area.

On the second floor of the addition, academic areas would be grouped together, along with offices for some department heads. Plans for the floor include:

- A science area, including a small greenhouse and laboratories
- Language classrooms and an office
- Math classrooms and a computer room

And a social studies area.

The town manager noted that an efficient use of space was made by substituting departmental offices for teachers' conference rooms, lounges, and work areas — "a desirable change." He added that further such choices remain to be made.

Clark also pointed out that, with the exception of some science labs and departmental offices, all rooms would have an exterior exposure, which he called "a major concern."

"An advantage to the way this plan is laid out," Clark told the committee, "is that minimal changes are required within the existing Doherty. This is a good omen for a budget-wise facility," he said. "I commend Jerry and Dick."

The committee will meet tonight at 7:30 in town hall to discuss proposed modifications of West Junior High, and the addition of an auditorium to the high school.

ZONE CONTROL HEATING

Every time you want your living room or other room a few degrees warmer, you turn the thermostat up. This turns the furnace on to heat the whole house until the thermostat is satisfied. It takes a lot of fuel to heat a whole house... but it takes only a small amount to raise the temperature a few degrees for a single room or zone. This is the fuel-saving principle of zone control heating.

Each zone is controlled by a separate thermostat which directs the full flow of heat only into those zones where heating (or cooling) is called for by the individual zone thermostat.

With zone controlled heating, you can keep your occupied zones, such as the kitchen or living room, at a warm, comfortable temperature while your unused recreation room and unoccupied bedrooms can be set at a lower temperature, such as 65 or 60 degrees. It takes only a small amount of fuel to heat a single room or zone as compared to having to heat a whole house. Zone control heating can save a lot of your annual fuel budget.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

To Examine Summer School

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert will be reporting back to the school committee on the possibility of reinstating some form of summer school in Andover.

The $26,000 summer activity was dropped last year in an economy move. Mrs. Marcia Hohn appeared before the committee Tuesday night with a request for the reinstatement. She said her children had appreciated summer school in the past, and she felt a lot of people would be willing to pay $25 to $30 per course to help make the program self-sustaining.

She said she would also be willing to help conduct an interest survey through the PTO's, to see how many people would take advantage of the summer session.

Seifert said that the $10 charge per course had covered less than $3,000 of the total cost of the program two years ago.

But, he said, they could reduce that sum by cutting back some of the offerings.

He noted that this was a good time to come before the school committee with such a request. The board began deliberations on next year's budget Tuesday night and has time to consider some alternatives.

"We really missed summer school," added Mrs. Sandra Chateauf. She said a lot of special needs students relied on the program.

It filled an important gap, she indicated, for some mentally and physically handicapped youngsters who don't fit into the usual summer activities, and for learning disabilities students who needed the extra help. Private tutoring on the other hand, she said, was much more expensive, and public programs in surrounding communities were filled with their own youngsters and couldn't take any from Andover.

Pupil Personnel Administrator Pamela Kvilekval noted that Andover had had 200 or so summer pupils for many years. That number dropped to 100 in the last year of the program, she said, possibly because the Department of Community Services had picked up many of those pupils through their programs.

might stay in the readiness class for two years.

Seifert said he would be coming back with a request for two readiness teachers, but asked the committee to "look at the fact we're reducing by at least four teachers this year," because of the declining enrollment. He added that the system had dropped more than 40 teachers in the last four years — more, he said, than the decrease in student population would account for.

Seifert said Tuesday night that while a developmental primary unit will be housed at Bancroft, it would not simply be the former Doherty unit "dropped in," teachers and all. He said it would be the Doherty concept, with some things added from Bancroft.

Seifert said they would try to accommodate as many Doherty pupils as they could, without disrupting the consistency of services at Bancroft.

Mrs. Karen VanDoren of Wethersfield Drive asked that the committee think "long range" in terms of special needs youngsters. She said she felt they have been shuffled from school to school over the years and that for some youngsters, particularly those with serious physical handicaps, the changes have been very difficult.

Seifert said he felt that special needs should be in some of the better classroom spaces, and that other special services such as math labs could take up lesser spaces because the pupils spend less time in them.

Committeeman Joseph Finn added the final consideration for redistricting Tuesday night: "I'd like to make everyone involved happy," he said.
